LEAVE OF ABSENCE REQUEST FORM
INSTRUCTIONS

ALL LEAVES MUST BE REQUESTED FROM AND GRANTED BY THE BOARD OF EDUCATION FOR AN ABSENCE OVER 5 CONSECUTIVE DAYS.

1. Notification to your principal or supervisor is not a request for leave. The process requires that the required forms are submitted to School Business Administrator/Board Secretary so that Board of Education approval can be obtained. Please call Mary Kate Garry as soon as you know of an impending leave to schedule an appointment to review the necessary paperwork.
2. If you are requesting a medical leave for yourself or a seriously ill spouse, child, parent or dependent, the appropriate Certification of Health Care Provider (4 pages) must be completed in its entirety by the treating physician. Please inform your doctor that incomplete forms will be returned, which may delay your approval. Ideally, the Certification of Health Care Provider should be attached to your Request Form so that the dates that you are requesting can be verified. If not, please have your doctor's office fax the form to 465-7058.
3. The Middle Township Board of Education uses a rolling 12 month period measured backwards from the date you wish your FMLA to begin to determine eligibility.
4. The requirement for you to use your paid time off is at the discretion of the District and is as follows:
 - Certified Staff – May only use paid time off for themselves and will be required to use all sick time in their bank.
 - Transportation - Must use all their personal time in their bank.
 - Support Staff – Must use all sick time in their bank.
5. You have the right to maintain your health benefits while out on FMLA. With the implementation of Ch 78 Pension and Health Reform Law the employee's responsibility for their calculated percentage of health coverage will STILL BE DUE while on an unpaid leave. This may be paid back to the District upon your return from leave for a period not to exceed the length of the leave.

6. You have the right to return to your job at the end of your FMLA leave, you are required to furnish a new doctor's note if you anticipate returning earlier than your original date.
7. You must fill in page 1 of the request form and submit pages 1 and 2, along with a completed Certification of Health Care Provider (4 pages) to your Principal/Supervisor for approval and signature.
8. Once all paperwork is received in the Board Admin office, your request will be reviewed and placed on the agenda of the next Board meeting. If you do not hear from me stating that your leave has been denied, you are to take this as notification that your FMLA leave request has been approved by our office.
9. Please remember different groups under CNA enjoy different benefits per your contract (certified staff, support staff, transportation, etc...). Certified staff members may only use their sick days for their own illnesses.
10. If you are out on leave to have a baby, please be aware your new bundle(s) must be added to your insurance policy within 30 days!! Please contact Dawn Aftanis to do so at x3116 or aftanisd@middletwp.k12.nj.us.

Both the Federal and State leave of absences acts require your notification to the employer at least 30 days in advance (when applicable).

Please feel free to contact me with any questions; I know it's very confusing!

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS UNDER THE FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT

THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR WAGE AND HOUR DIVISION

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

Eligible employees who work for a covered employer can take up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave in a 12-month period for the following reasons:

- The birth of a child or placement of a child for adoption or foster care;
- To bond with a child (leave must be taken within 1 year of the child's birth or placement);
- To care for the employee's spouse, child, or parent who has a qualifying serious health condition;
- For the employee's own qualifying serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job;
- For qualifying exigencies related to the foreign deployment of a military member who is the employee's spouse, child, or parent.

An eligible employee who is a covered servicemember's spouse, child, parent, or next of kin may also take up to 26 weeks of FMLA leave in a single 12-month period to care for the servicemember with a serious injury or illness.

An employee does not need to use leave in one block. When it is medically necessary or otherwise permitted, employees may take leave intermittently or on a reduced schedule.

Employees may choose, or an employer may require, use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. If an employee substitutes accrued paid leave for FMLA leave, the employee must comply with the employer's normal paid leave policies.

While employees are on FMLA leave, employers must continue health insurance coverage as if the employees were not on leave.

Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to the same job or one nearly identical to it with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms and conditions.

An employer may not interfere with an individual's FMLA rights or retaliate against someone for using or trying to use FMLA leave, opposing any practice made unlawful by the FMLA, or being involved in any proceeding under or related to the FMLA.

BENEFITS & PROTECTIONS

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

An employee who works for a covered employer must meet three criteria in order to be eligible for FMLA leave. The employee must:

- Have worked for the employer for at least 12 months;
- Have at least 1,250 hours of service in the 12 months before taking leave;* and
- Work at a location where the employer has at least 50 employees within 75 miles of the employee's worksite.

*Special "hours of service" requirements apply to airline flight crew employees.

REQUESTING LEAVE

Generally, employees must give 30-days' advance notice of the need for FMLA leave. If it is not possible to give 30-days' notice, an employee must notify the employer as soon as possible and, generally, follow the employer's usual procedures.

Employees do not have to share a medical diagnosis, but must provide enough information to the employer so it can determine if the leave qualifies for FMLA protection. Sufficient information could include informing an employer that the employee is or will be unable to perform his or her job functions, that a family member cannot perform daily activities, or that hospitalization or continuing medical treatment is necessary. Employees must inform the employer if the need for leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified.

Employers can require a certification or periodic recertification supporting the need for leave. If the employer determines that the certification is incomplete, it must provide a written notice indicating what additional information is required.

EMPLOYER RESPONSIBILITIES

Once an employer becomes aware that an employee's need for leave is for a reason that may qualify under the FMLA, the employer must notify the employee if he or she is eligible for FMLA leave and, if eligible, must also provide a notice of rights and responsibilities under the FMLA. If the employee is not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for ineligibility.

Employers must notify its employees if leave will be designated as FMLA leave, and if so, how much leave will be designated as FMLA leave.

ENFORCEMENT

Employees may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor, Wage and Hour Division, or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer.

The FMLA does not affect any federal or state law prohibiting discrimination or supersede any state or local law or collective bargaining agreement that provides greater family or medical leave rights.

The New Jersey Family Leave Act

Employees who are covered by the New Jersey Family Leave Act (N.J.S.A.34:11B-1, et seq.) and related regulations (N.J.A.C. § 13:14-1.1., et seq.) are entitled to take up to 12 weeks of family leave in a 24-month period without losing their jobs. With some exceptions, employers must provide this type of leave when the following conditions are met:

- The EMPLOYER has at least 50 employees or is a government entity (regardless of the number of employees).
- The EMPLOYEE has worked for that employer for at least one year, and has worked at least 1,000 hours for that employer during the 12 months immediately prior to taking the leave.
- The LEAVE OF ABSENCE is being taken in connection with the birth or adoption of a child, or because of a serious health condition of a child, parent, step-parent, parent-in-law, spouse or civil union partner. (The New Jersey Family Leave Act does not provide leave for the employee's own health condition.)

Leave granted by the Family Leave Act is separate from any rights granted under the Temporary Disability Benefits Law or the Family Leave Insurance Law. Employees may be eligible for additional leave under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act.

The employee must give the employer notice 30 days before taking Family Leave, except when emergent circumstances require the employee to begin Family Leave sooner. In emergent circumstances, the employee should give the employer as much notice as possible.

To ensure that the employee meets the eligibility requirements, the employer may require the employee to provide a certification from a health care provider regarding the family member's serious health condition, the date of a newborn's birth or the date of placement for adoption.
