

Middle Township High School

Khimal Kendall Lumpkin Memorial Scholarship

Khimal Kendall Lumpkin, a fifteen-year-old sophomore actively involved in his community and church, a running back for the Middle Township High School Varsity Football Team and a contributing member of a Positive generation of African-American youth.

On January 11, 1994, Khimal died while trying to save his dog, Miles, from drowning. Although his death was a tragedy, his good intention was typical of the way he lived his life. Khimal was a reserved, self-confident, benevolent approachable, fun-loving young man. His care and concern, for fellow classmates, set him apart from the rest; making this scholarship in his name one of the highest tributes to his memory.
