COLAGE

COLAGE, Children of Lesbian and Gay Everywhere, is an organization created in 1990 by the children of several lesbian and gay male couples who felt a need for support. COLAGE is run and operated by people of all ages who have an LGBTQ parent or parents. COLAGE unites people with lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and/or queer parents into a network of peers and supports them as they nurture and empower each other to be skilled, self-confident, and just leaders in our collective communities. They offer a youth leadership program, family week event, regional chapters, and events, along with a list of resources including books, films, publications and articles, and websites.

Trans Student Educational Resources (TSER)

Trans Student Educational Resources is a youth-led organization dedicated to transforming the educational environment for trans and gender-nonconforming students through advocacy and empowerment. In addition to their focus on creating a more trans-friendly education system, their mission is to educate the public and teach trans activists how to be effective organizers. They believe that justice for trans and gender-nonconforming youth is contingent on an intersectional framework of activism. Resources they offer include workshops, publications, conferences, scholarships, and camps.
